Cookies Policy

What are cookies

Cookies consist of portions of code installed in the browser that assist the owner in providing the service according to the purposes described. Some of the purposes of installation of cookies could, pursuant to art. 13 of the General European Regulation on the Protection of Personal Data 679/2016 (hereafter GDPR), require the User's consent.

Technical and statistical cookies aggregated

- Cookies strictly necessary for the operation

This Application uses Cookies to save the User session and to perform other activities strictly necessary for the functioning of the same, for example in relation to the distribution of traffic. Examples of these cookies are "PHPSESSID", "cart", "language", "ln" and how many others are used by the application scripts for the correct functioning of the same.

- Cookies for saving preferences, optimization, and statistics

This application uses cookies to save browsing preferences and optimize the user's browsing experience. These cookies include, for example, those for setting the language and currency or for the management of statistics by the owner of the site.

- Performance and functionality cookies

This application uses performance cookies that collect anonymous information on pages visited by users. They are used to track the most searched pages and are useful for improving links between pages and for determining the reason for possible error messages. Functional cookies also memorize the choices made by the user in order to improve navigation and your online experience. These cookies are used for example to allow you to save a product in the list of "favorites". By removing these cookies that do not collect information on sensitive user data, some features of the site will be lost, which will offer a lower performance.

- Identification or advertising cookies

These cookies, if present on the site you are visiting, collect information about your browsing habits, in order to propose advertisements that are important and targeted to your interests. Your sensitive data will not be tracked but we suggest you visit http://www.youronlinechoices.com/uk/ for more information. By removing these cookies, no functionality will be lost.

Other types of cookies or third-party tools that may be present in this application

Some of the services listed below collect statistics in aggregate form and may not require the consent of the User or could be managed directly by the Owner - depending on what is described - without the help of third parties.

If among the tools indicated below there were services managed by third parties, these could - in addition to what is specified and also without the knowledge of the owner - perform tracking activities of the User. For detailed information, it is advisable to consult the privacy policy of the services listed.
